

House Resolution No. 2504

Whereas, it is with tremendous pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State families who are visionary practitioners of invaluable agricultural skills; and

Whereas, the Karl and Albert Noellsch families have attained distinction for the stellar methods they have utilized to enhance agricultural production on their farm in the rural Oregon, Missouri, area; and

Whereas, on February 3, 2005, Karl and Barbara Noellsch and Albert and Nora Noellsch were presented with the Farmer Conservationist Award by the Missouri chapter of the Wildlife Society at the Missouri Natural Resources Conference at Tan Tara Resort; and

Whereas, the Karl and Albert Noellsch families earned the prestigious Farmer Conservationist Award through their implementation of food plots, wildlife friendly filter strips, field borders, and Conservation Reserve Program acres on their property; and

Whereas, the Karl and Albert Noellsch families have incorporated wildlife-friendly principles into their farming operation in conjunction with the Holt County USDA office and the Missouri Department of Conservation; and

Whereas, the Missouri chapter of the Wildlife Society has presented a Farmer Conservationist Award whenever a worthy candidate has been found since 1976; and

Whereas, in order to select a Farmer Conservationist Award recipient, the Missouri chapter of the Wildlife Society takes into consideration the level of reliance on farm income, commitment to a farming operation, and level of wildlife and natural resources management on a farm:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of the Karl and Albert Noellsch families for the Farmer Conservationist Award by the Missouri chapter of the Wildlife Society and to convey to all of those involved this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of the Karl and Albert Noellsch families of Oregon, Missouri.
